NOTES:

- This is an example of a purchase transaction. Standard rescission periods apply on refinances.
- This is an example of a transaction which uses US Mail for GFE disclosure and email for TIL disclosure as methods for sending disclosures to the borrower.
- RESPA regulation supersedes MDIA regulation.

RESPA RECAP:

- Borrower must be provided 10 business days to shop every time a GFE is issued. If the borrower expresses an intent to proceed with the transaction based on the GFE disclosure or redisclosure, the 10-day period does not apply. A new Intent to Proceed is not required each time a GFE is reissued if loan documents are scheduled to sign after the expiration date of the GFE.
- Borrowers must express their intent to proceed before fees can be charged.
- SSPL must be provided with initial GFE disclosure.
- When a Changed Circumstance occurs, a revised GFE must be sent to the borrower unless the change in fees is within tolerance levels.

MDIA RECAP:

- Initial Disclosure Wait Period:
The earliest day to sign loan documents will be 7 days after the disclosures are sent to the borrower.
- Fee Collection Wait Period:
The earliest day to collect fees is 1 business day after disclosures are received by the borrower.
- APR Change Wait Period:
The earliest day to sign loan documents is three business days after re-disclosures are received by the borrower.
